These findings will allow us to understand whether further support is needed, whilst also ensuring our PE and sport premium guidance is as helpful as possible. Swimming

As part of the National Curriculum schools must provide swimming and water safety lessons either in key stage 1 or key stage 2. National curriculum requirements are pupils should be taught to:

- swim competently, confidently and proficiently over a distance of at least 25 metres
 - use a range of strokes effectively (for example, front crawl, backstroke and breaststroke)
 - perform safe self-rescue in different water-based situations
- Within this form, we ask that schools provide data on the percentage of pupils within its year 6 cohort in the current academic year who met the national curriculum swimming and water safety requirements. Schools should provide attainment data for year 6 pupils from their most recent swimming lessons. This may be data from previous years, depending on the swimming and water safety programme at the school. Schools must keep attainment data from swimming and water safety lessons in years 3 to 5 to be able to report this accurately in year 6.

What percentage of pupils in your current year 6 cohort can use a range of strokes effectively?	87%
